INTERNATIONAL BOTANISTS' CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN JUNE

The first joint meeting of the Canadian Botanical Association and the American Institute of Biological Sciences will be held at The University of Alberta, June 20 to 24. More than a thousand delegates will represent these associations and eight affiliated groups: the Canadian Phytopathological Society, the Botanical Society of America, the American Society of Plant Taxonomists, the Mycological Society of America, the American Bryological and Lichenological Society, the Phycological Society of America, the Torrey Botanical Club, and the American Fern Society.

The theme for the conference is "Our Northern Plants: Their Importance in the World's Resources."

The Honourable JACK DAVIS, Minister of Fisheries and Forestry, will be one of the principal speakers. The four-day conference will consist of meetings of the associations, almost five hundred contributed papers, symposia, and fieldtrips.

The symposia will deal with such topics as "Technology in Enzyme Isolation," "Botany in Undergraduate Curricula," "Plants of the North," "The Role of Plant Pathologists in Pollution Abatement," and "White Spruce: the Ecology of a Northern Resource." There will also be a workshop on controlled environmental enclosures.

Field trips planned by participating societies will be a major attraction. The trips will cover areas of botanical interest in Alberta and neighboring provinces and will include paleobotany trips to Drumheller and Genesee, a trip through the Alberta and Saskatchewan prairies, and trips through the Rocky Mountains and central British Columbia.

General Chairman and Co-ordinator for the conference is W. N. STEWART, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Botany. Other members of the local committee include J. H. WHYTE, D. D. CASS, P. N. D. SEYMOUR, L. C. BLISS, J. GATHE, M. OSTAFICHUK, E. A. COSSINS, P. R. GORHAM, and W. E. NOBLE, all of the Department of Botany, and D. HOCKING of the Forest Research Laboratory.

The conference and field trips (for which conference registration is required) are open to anyone interested. Advance registration costs $12; registration after May 15 or at the meeting costs $15. Registration fees for students are $5 and $8, and for an accompanying spouse who is not planning to attend the scientific sessions, the fee is $3. Inquiries should be directed to the Conference Chairman, Dr. Stewart, in the Department of Botany, telephone 432-3247.

CAMPUS SECURITY GRIEVANCE SETTLED

D. G. TYNDALL, Vice-President (Finance and Administration) has issued a statement regarding the eight members of the Campus Security Force who were dismissed in January because of certain public statements made by them regarding the Force.

A special investigating committee was set up at that time at the request of the Non-Academic Staff Association to review the cases. The recommendations of the committee have now been received.

Dr. Tyndall's statement is as follows: "On the recommendations of the Special Investigating Committee established to review the termination action taken with respect to eight members of the University Campus Security Force in January, 1971, The University of Alberta and The University of Alberta Non-Academic Staff Association have agreed to a settlement of the dispute. It has been agreed that certain actions taken by the constables did contravene the regulations under which they had agreed to work, but these did not warrant termination of employment."

DEVELOPMENT GRANT FOR DENTISTRY

The Medical Research Council has awarded the Faculty of Dentistry a substantial development grant, which is effective immediately, and designed to assist in establishing a research group within the Department of Oral Biology. The group will devote itself to a study of calcified tissues within the oral cavity; attention to be directed to a detailed study of the process by which certain tissues become calcified.

Operational and capital expenses, as well as salary for a senior research associate for a three year period, will be provided by the grant. For this study, a yet unnamed research associate will join the department to work with J. TUBA, Professor, D. J. CARMICHAEL, Associate Professor, and C. F. NAWROT, Assistant Professor.

PEOPLE

■ J. W. CHALMERS, Associate Professor of Educational Foundations, has been appointed to the position of Co-ordinator, Division of Field Experiences, Faculty of Education, effective July 1. He succeeds L. D. STEWART, who has served as Co-ordinator for the past four years, and who will assume new duties in the curriculum field, serving jointly in the departments of Secondary and Elementary Education.

■ EDWARD MOZEJKO, Associate Professor of Slavic Languages and Comparative Literature, will be on leave of absence in the academic year 1971-72 to do research on Russian and Polish avant-garde trends in literature. Professor Mozejko has been awarded the Alexander von Humboldt-Stiftung fellowship to conduct his research in West Germany. The fellowship is awarded only to scholars who are already advanced in their career and who have already published outstanding work.

■ JEREMY S. WILLIAMS, Associate Professor of Law on leave as Professor of Law at Indiana University, has been appointed to a task force created by the Canadian Department of Justice to study various aspects of privacy.

■ ROLF E. ROGERS, Associate Professor, Behavioral Science Group, Faculty of Business Administration and Commerce, presented an invited paper to the annual meeting of the Canadian Association of Medical Clinics in Edmonton.

■ R. E. RINK, Associate Professor of Electrical Engineering, presented an invited paper to the third annual Houston Conference on Computer and System Science.

■ GWYNN NETTLER, Professor of Sociology, presented an invited paper to a conference of insurance underwriters in Philadelphia. The conference was sponsored by the Insurance Company of North America.

■ AMY ELLIOTT ZELMER and A. C. L. ZELMER, Assistant Professors of Extension, conducted a two-day workshop on simulation techniques sponsored by the Department of Extension at the University of Saskatchewan, Regina Campus. The workshop was attended by teachers, staff trainers and others interested in small group instruction.
